PLEASE READ, DETACH, AND RETAIN FOR YOUR RECORDS

Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a) and Debt Collection Improvement Act (31 U.S.C. 7701)

Authorities and Purpose for Collecting Information: The Small Business Administration (SBA) requires this information collection for the administration of financial and contracting assistance programs. For financial assistance programs authorized by Sec. 7(a) of the Small Business Act, 15 U.S.C. § 636 et seq., and Title V of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, 15 U.S.C. § 695, et seq., SBA regulations require any loan guarantor and individual owners of the small business applicant to submit a personal financial statement to disclose their assets and liabilities (See, 13 CFR § 120.150). With respect to SBA's contracting assistance programs, SBA regulations at 13 CFR §§ 124.104, 124.112, and 124.1002; and 13 CFR § 127.203 require, among other things, that applicants and participants submit financial information as part of the application for SBA's contracting assistance programs. SBA is collecting the information on this form, including social security numbers and other personal information, to make credit or other eligibility decisions in connection with you or your company's application for SBA assistance.

SBA may also use social security numbers for the purpose of collecting and reporting on any delinquent fees or other amounts owed SBA, where applicable. For purposes of SBA's financial assistance programs, 31 U.S.C. 7701 requires loan applicants and guarantors, or any indemnitor of a surety bond to provide their social security numbers or other taxpayer identification numbers. Failure to provide this information would affect your ability to obtain an SBA loan or bond. For other individuals signing this form, the submission of the social security number is voluntary and failure to provide your social security number may not affect any right, benefit or privilege to which you are entitled. However, your social security number or other taxpayer identification number helps SBA to distinguish you from other individuals with the same or similar name or other personal identifier. This use is permitted under Executive Order 9397.

Routine Uses: The Privacy Act authorizes SBA to make certain "routine uses" of information protected by that Act. One such routine use for SBA's loan system of records for personal use of information is to assist in obtaining credit bureau reports on Disaster Loan Applicants and guarantors for purposes of originating, servicing, and liquidating Disaster loans. The information in this system is used on a routine basis exclusively by authorized officials. Personal information collected is protected to the extent permitted by law, including the Freedom Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, and the Privacy Act 5 U.S.C. 552a. While the records are routinely used only for the purpose for which they are established, additional uses may be made in accordance to SBA's Privacy Act System of Records: SBA 20 - Disaster Loans Case Files, SBA 21- Loan Systems, SBA 30 - Government Contracting and Business Development, and SBA 26 - Power of Attorney Files. The notice of each system of records can be found here: <https://www.sba.gov/sites/default/files/2020-01/sba-sorns.pdf>.

Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3401) -- This is notice to you as required by the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, of SBA's access rights to financial records held by financial institutions that are or have been doing business with you or your business, including any financial institutions participating in a loan or loan guarantee. The law provides that SBA shall have a right of access to your financial records in connection with its consideration or administration of assistance to you in the form of a Government loan, loan guaranty agreement, or bond guarantee. SBA is required to provide a certificate of its compliance with the Act to a financial institution in connection with its first request for access to your financial records, after which no further certification is required for subsequent accesses. The law also provides that SBA's access rights continue for the term of any approved loan or loan guaranty agreement, or bond agreement. No further notice to you of SBA's access rights is required during the term of any such agreement.

The law also authorizes SBA to transfer to another Government authority any financial records included in an application for a loan or bond guarantee, or concerning an approved loan or loan guarantee, or approved bond guarantee, as necessary to process, service or foreclose on a loan or loan guarantee or collect on a defaulted loan or loan guarantee, or to process or service the bond guarantee. No other transfer of your financial records to another Government authority will be permitted by SBA except as required or permitted by law.

Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552)

This law provides, with some exceptions, that SBA must supply information contained in agency files and records to a person requesting it. Information about approved loans that will be automatically released includes, among other things, statistics on our loan programs (individual borrowers are not identified in the statistics), and other information such as the names of the borrowers (and their officers, directors, stockholders or partners), the collateral pledged to secure the loan, the amount of the loan, its purpose in general terms, and the maturity. With respect to SBA's bond guarantee program, SBA will release, among other things, statistics on the Surety Bond Guarantee (SBG) programs and other information such as the names of small businesses (and their officers, directors, stockholders or partners) and the amount of the bond guarantees. Proprietary data on a borrower would not routinely be made available to third parties. All requests under this Act are to be addressed to the nearest SBA office and be identified as a Freedom of Information request.
